FOREWORD

FOR some years the Student Christian Movement has been feeling its way towards a Book of Hymns for Students which would serve as a companion to the Book of Prayers for Students. In 1917 and in the three following years a small collection of Conference Hymns was published annually for use at the Summer Conferences of the Movement. These collections were experimental: hymns which hitherto were little known were introduced, and also tunes. Under the guidance of Drs. Harold Darke and Henry Ley, and Messrs. Martin Shaw and A. C. Dixon, a revolution was made in the singing at Conferences.

These successful experiments made a hymn-book an urgent need. The difficulty has always been the cost of a musical edition.

At the beginning of last year we approached Dr. (now Sir) Walford Davies about the musical editorship, and learned that he had already been asked to prepare a School and College Hymn-book for the National Council of Music, University of Wales. Our aims and tastes were so alike that co-operation has proved possible, and this collection of Hymns of the Kingdom is the result. It does not contain all the hymns we would wish for, and it includes some hymns which we should probably not have chosen for a collection made exclusively for the Student Movement. But we put it before the members of our Movement believing that they will find it good and true.

We are grateful to many members of the Movement and friends for help in the selection of hymns: also to Sir Walford Davies and the editorial committee of the National Council of Music for the generous way in which they have met our criticisms and suggestions, and especially for allowing a short Supplement of Hymns and Tunes which are much used in the Movement. Chiefly are we very happy to have the services of Sir Walford Davies as musical editor. We trust all who read this foreword will go on to read the preface in which he explains the reasons for the several unique features of the book.

This book, it may here be explained, appears in four forms:

1. HYMNS OF THE KINGDOM (MELODY EDITION). An edition of words with melodic outline in both notations for use of the Student Christian Movement, and for general English use.

2. STUDENTS' HYMNAL (MELODY EDITION). An edition of the same kind for use in Welsh Schools and Colleges, which contains all of No. 1 with 123 Welsh Hymns and Tunes and several Psalms, short Anthems, and Carols added.

3. HYMNS OF THE KINGDOM (HARMONIZED EDITION). A complete musical edition in both notations, harmonized. Corresponding to No. 1 above.

4. STUDENTS' HYMNAL (HARMONY EDITION). A complete musical edition in both notations, containing all of No. 2 harmonized.

ON THE NEED OF PLACING THE WRITTEN MELODY BEFORE ALL SINGERS

HYMN-SINGING needs to be natural, unforced, and full of life. It should be the most vital experience of which a school, or college, or any assembly is capable. A good 'sing' together realizes and releases esprit de corps in unique ways. It can be an ideal expression of unity of spirit.

Two dangers threaten this ideal. On the one hand, it is possible that some schools with lively joy will come to shout their hymns indiscriminately and think it fine. On the other hand, the effort to be correct, refined, or (as some may think) solemn enough, may produce a far more deadly danger and destroy spontaneity and heartiness. This respectful reducing of natural energies, for fear of offending propriety, easily decays, as it deserves to decay, into sheer apathy in which not a single line can be said to be alive. Under such conditions the best-known hymns are apt to falter, drag, and die; while those tunes which are new must needs be voted dull before they can breathe one breath of life. How can we best steer clear of these two dangers? How can every line of every hymn be made real, natural, interesting, and life-like to all?

Great effort has been made in the Melody Edition of the present book to give as practical a reply as possible to this question, and to meet the needs of the ordinary boy or girl, man or woman, who cannot find time to study music, but who yet can naturally sing well. In this effort, two main considerations have emerged. (1) It seems clear that nine out of ten ordinary people stand to gain if a simple picture of the melody is put in front of them with the words; it is obvious that no one will ever read melody fluently if he or she never sees the rise and fall of it on paper while singing it.¹ (2) The Editor has been brought with others, through long experience, to a strong conviction that the sameness and squareness of the many bar-lines and the numberless minims—with the stolid minimity, to borrow a happy word invented by Mr. Geoffrey Shaw—of the ordinary tune-book have tended to interrupt thought, stop the flow of the phrase, and block the natural line of inspiration. In regard to the numberless bar-lines, what, for example, would be the effect on a mere reader if (ostensibly for guidance in reading) a line of poetry were marked in the following heavy way:

The | curfew | tolls the | knell of | parting | day. ||

¹ Truly a man can no more be expected to gaze at a poem and think a tune, than to gaze at a tune and think a poem. The kindly law of mental association will do wonders in making one thing recall another; but this gives no excuse for a new Hymnal to be issued in multitudes of 'words only' editions, which leave the slenderly educated melodist to grope after, and pick up and fit the tune as best he can.

MUSICAL EDITOR'S PREFACE

can become a good reader of melody except he see on the page that which he is hearing with his ear. This truth works two ways: for no man of mere book-learning in music will ever be a good reader without it; and conversely no amount of ignorance of music will ultimately prevent the natural man from becoming a reader if he always sees the very rise and fall of the melody, recorded on the staff before his eyes, while he hears it and tries to join in. There is surely no place more fitted for a vigorous campaign in this matter than schools and colleges and among all students.

A WORD TO MUSICAL BEGINNERS

A word may here be offered to the ordinary boy or man who, taking up the melody edition, with no technical knowledge of music, desires to join in the singing of a favourite hymn to an unfamiliar tune. Of course, his first need will be to follow some one person who is capable of singing or playing the little-known tune from beginning to end without breaking down, a leader who can reach the goal and can safely be followed. There are nearly always leaders present. They do not always know that they are leaders, but it is fairly easy to pick them out and follow them without letting them know. His second need is the simple picture before his own eyes of the particular melody which is being sung. His third need is to listen and look at one and the same moment. He will then find his ear and eye co-relating their experiences. He may well imagine how 'at sea' he will be during the first verse, but he will not be more at sea for having the melody in its most elementary form in front of him. Before five verses are out he will have found that every musical phrase included in a slur thus:  corresponds (speaking generally) with every verbal phrase or line of poetry as he would naturally speak it. He will probably also have noticed vaguely that as the energy of the line of melody rises, the curve of the notes rises also. He will soon be interested in these curves. Before he has used the book (Sunday by Sunday, or day by day), for a year or so, he will find that he is slowly but surely becoming a melody-reader. He should always watch the line of melody as it is being played over.

THE TONIC SOL-FA SYLLABLES

Tonic Sol-fa syllables have been added so that readers accustomed to the Staff notation may have the benefit of the exact indication the syllables give of the relationship to each other of the family of notes which make up an ideal scale. These syllables bring out relationships in a way that the Staff can never do. On the other hand, the Staff is especially essential to those who have hitherto only read Tonic Sol-fa; and it would certainly seem that the Staff itself should be more looked at while singing, for the simple reason that this notation gives a picture of the rise and fall (and rhythm) of the melody in a way which a straight line of symbols or signs can never hope to do.¹

¹ It is interesting here to note that these two systems have been used together in different ways and in different stages of development for a thousand

MUSICAL EDITOR'S PREFACE

As in the Staff notation, so in the Sol-fa, signs other than the bare note-syllables have been reduced to a minimum so that the reader, especially the untrained music-lover, may have the least possible obstacle between himself and the actual song, and be able to derive his rhythmic inspiration from the words direct. A short horizontal line placed after any given syllable suffices to show the lengthening of that syllable by one beat or unit of time (whatever that unit chance to be); two lines show two additional beats, and three show three; additional half-beats are shown by a very short line. It can scarcely take children more than ten minutes to get used to this plan. Though bar-lines have been omitted from the Melody Edition (seeing that metrical words carry the indubitable accents within themselves), yet barlets have been sparingly inserted, in both notations alike, as a slight help to the mind and to help the eye in its hard task of travelling swiftly from the words (of verses other than the first), back to the tune while singing. This swift act of the eye is rather like the act of jumping into a vehicle in motion, and the guide-line or barlet is a safety-mark.

After consultation with experts who know far more about Tonic Sol-fa than the present writer, it was decided slightly to extend the usual Sol-fa method so as to show transitory modulations during a given tune in their true relations to the central key-note or chord. Thus a momentary transition to the mediant minor cannot truly be named and thought of as lah minor (for example, a transition to E minor in a C major tune). It is, of course, easier for beginners to call all minors by one name; but mis-naming carries with it mis-learning, which of course later involves unlearning. The mediant minor (me) has a simple and beautiful relation to its key-note (doh) direct, and cannot truthfully be called lah minor. Experience has fortunately shown that with a very little initial trouble, it can be helpfully identified even by beginners as me minor with leading-note re. In every case therefore the simple 'accidentals' of Tonic Sol-fa are used here in the letter notations. But where the modulation goes to a remote key, and where the present generation of Tonic Sol-fa readers might experience difficulty with the less familiar signs, a clue has been furnished in small type showing the customary scale relationships of the 'accidentals'. It is confidently believed that any initial difficulty which this less familiar and so-called 'imperfect' method may give to the expert Tonic Sol-faist will soon be more than compensated by the increased mental grip of the true relationships within the little master-cycle of six related keys which together form the basis of all tonality of the last three centuries.

A COMMUNION OF COMPOSERS

Some of the tunes in this book whose authorship is collectively marked University of Wales' have been composed by a small community of minds. In two cases no less than five melodists took an essential part in a four-line tune. The actual selection of tunes for the whole book has been made by many minds, but finally referred to one, so that the Editor became personally responsible for all flaws of choice. The guiding rules of years, and it is difficult to see how they can ever be anything less than a mutual help one to the other.

MUSICAL EDITOR'S PREFACE

selection throughout have been: (1) each tune must fit its words better than any other tune at hand, and (2) all tunes must possess such qualities of melody, harmony, and build as will cause them to wear well and by much repetition grow clear if possible to all without growing wearisome to any.

In many cases the original or authentic form of famous tunes has been exactly preserved or restored. But in other cases the Editor has dared to alter harmonies in the spirit (it is hoped) of the originals, desiring to show them more reverence than to help to perpetuate what seemed to him to be their shortcomings. He has counted this liberty a duty, yet expects blame which may well be justly due. He could only try to bring the book as a whole into a form which seemed to him fitting, under God, for this particular generation of scholars and students. If in places the melody of the under-parts seems a little steep, or if the harmonies seem more difficult or less sweet and flowing than usual, it is good to remember that the difficulties are such as may soon vanish with familiarity, and that austere or plain harmonies can grow sweet with use, while merely sweet harmonies can never grow strong. Many a noble nineteenth-century melody has been marred by thoughtless, inept, or even slavish harmonies. No previous age possessed contrapuntal resources at once so simple and rich as the present age possesses. Moreover, since even good harmonies often gain beauty in their changeability, like the coloured lights and shadows on a loved landscape, it seems a pity ever to consider them unchangeable (even for the bare convenience of part-singers). The very changes can be changed again, back to the originals and forward to harmonies as yet unimagined. Music is a stream of living history, a current record of man's mind kept healthy by its movement, ever changing, never losing its primal values, nor one single line of melody that has ever flowed from its hidden sources in the minds of men.

HINTS IN PRACTICE

1. Practise the tunes unaccompanied and in a low key that does not strain the voice of the learners. A high pitch is often sufficient discouragement to stop many singers in their very first efforts. When singing is unaccompanied, no difficulty of transposing arises; any convenient key-note can be chosen. After a tune has been securely learnt, it is easier to climb to higher keys. But even then only one transposed copy of any given tune is needed to enable the choir-master permanently to adopt the best key for his total team. An effort to discover the inspiring pitch as well as the inspiring pace for any given assembly well repays itself.

2. Associate the learning of every new tune from the first with the words of its first verse. Instead of 'la-ing' a tune or singing it to Sol-fa syllables, it is a splendid plan to accustom your team to plunge into the words (i.e. of the first verse) at once. If the plunge be taken into a tune with but one leader to fifty learners, the very adventure and quick repetitions of it will probably teach more than the wisest teachers can communicate in speech. In melody, solvitur ambulando is the certain rule. It is a good plan, at least in the early stages, for all to read the words unanimously aloud before singing them, line by line, phrase by phrase, alternating alert reading with singing. This method can carry new and instant life into a melody if pursued heartily. Above all, let practice be alive both in words and melody. Break with undue solemnity. Even hearty laughter and heavenly pursuits are quite compatible.

3. It is an admirable plan to appoint a leader for unaccompanied unisonal singing and a leading quartet for harmony practice, and then to adopt antiphonal ways of working. Thus leaders will take first and third lines, those who respond taking second and fourth. Take great pains to keep the rhythmic swing unbroken throughout. This plan has two great advantages: it induces emulation that leads twice as quickly to a spirited clearness and at last to perfection; and it also leads all to form the habit of listening as if singing, or, as Santley put it, of 'singing mentally' while the others are singing. To have a listening rest is to gain zest when your turn comes. Change leaders often; also change lines with each other or take two lines answering two, or a half answering half. This plan of practice will augment the ranks of confident leaders among the general chorus.

4. Practise the singing of Amens till they have finality, full-heartedness, completeness. Whenever in this book none is printed out, the ordinary plagal cadence is assumed:

Doh = F. { | d :— | d :— ||

or

But students may well search for new and beautiful forms of their own. An Amen cannot be too good. It is music's chance to embody the great Christian affirmative. In singing an Amen it is well to pretend you may never sing another and put everything into it, recalling St. Paul's great saying: 'In Him was Yea.'

| 1 A gladsome hymn of praise we sing,
And thankfully we gather,
To bless the love of God above,
Our everlasting Father. 2 In him rejoice with heart and voice,
Whose glory fadeth never,
Whose providence is our defence,
Who lives and loves for ever. 3 From shades of night he calls the light,
And from the sod the flower,
From every cloud his blessings break
In sunshine and in shower. | 4 Full in his sight his children stand,
By his strong arm defended ;
And he, whose wisdom guides the world,
Our footsteps hath attended. 5 For nothing falls unknown to him,
Or care, or joy, or sorrow ;
And he, whose mercy ruled the past,
Will be our stay to-morrow. 6 Then praise the Lord with one accord,
To his great name give glory,
And of his never-changing love
Repeat the wondrous story. |

- 1 All glory, laud, and honour
To thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.
- 2 Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's Royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessed One.
All glory, laud, and honour, &c.
- 3 The company of Angels
Are praising thee on high,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply.
All glory, laud, and honour, &c.
- 4 The people of the Hebrews
With palms before thee went ;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present.
All glory, laud, and honour, &c.
- 5 To thee before thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise ;
To thee now high exalted
Our melody we raise.
All glory, laud, and honour, &c.
- 6 Thou didst accept their praises,
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.
All glory, laud, and honour, &c.

- 1 All hail the power of Jesu's name !
 Let Angels prostrate fall ;
 Bring forth the royal diadem,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 2 Crown him, ye Martyrs of our God,
 Who from his altar call ;
 Praise him whose way of pain ye trod,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
 Ye ransomed of the fall,
 Hail him who saves you by his grace,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
 The wormwood and the gall ;
 Go spread your trophies at his feet,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
 Before him prostrate fall,
 To him all majesty ascribe,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 6 O that with yonder sacred throng
 We at his feet may fall,
 There join the everlasting song,
 And crown him Lord of all !

- 1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice ;
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him, and rejoice.
- 2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid he did us make ;
We are his folk, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
- 3 O enter then his gates with praise,
Approach with joy his courts unto ;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
- 4 For why ? the Lord our God is good :
His mercy is for ever sure ;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

1 All that's good, and great, and true,
All that is, and is to be,
Be it old, or be it new,
Comes, O Father, comes from thee.

2 Mercies dawn with every day,
Newer, brighter than before,
And the sun's declining ray
Layeth others up in store.

3 Not a bird that doth not sing
Sweetest praises to thy name;
Not an insect on the wing
But thy wonders doth proclaim.

4 Every blade and every tree,
All in happy concert ring,
And in wondrous harmony
Join in praises to their king.

5 Far and near, o'er land and sea,
Mountain-top and wooded dell,
All, in singing, sing of thee
Songs of love ineffable.

6 Fill us then with love divine;
Grant that we, though toiling here,
May in spirit, being thine,
See and hear thee everywhere.

* Two Alleluias may be sung for verses 4 and 5, and all three for final verse.

1 Arm, soldiers of the Lord !

The fight is set with wrong ;
Take shield and breastplate, helm and
And sing your battle-song. [sword,

2 Stand fast for Love, your Lord ;

Faith be your mighty shield ;
And let the Spirit's burning sword
Flash foremost in the field.

3 Truth be your girdle strong ;

And Hope, your helmet, shine,
Whene'er the battle seemeth long
And wearied hearts repine.

4 With news of gospel Peace

Let your swift feet be shod ;
Your breastplate be the Righteousness
That keeps the soul for God.

5 And for the weary day,

And for the slothful arm,
For wounds, defeat, distress, dismay,
Take Prayer, the heavenly charm.

6 'From strength to strength' your cry,

Your battlefield the world ;
Strike home, and press where Christ on high
His banner hath unfurled.

- 1 As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold ;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright ;
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.
- 2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed :
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore ;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.
- 3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare ;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee, our heavenly King.
- 4 Holy Jesu, every day
Keep us in the narrow way ;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.
- 5 In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light ;
Thou its light, its joy, its crown,
Thou its sun which goes not down :
There for ever may we sing
Hallelujahs to our King.

- 1 At even, ere the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around thee lay ;
O, in what divers pains they met !
O with what joy they went away !
- 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near ;
What if thy form we cannot see ?
We know and feel that thou art here.
- 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel ;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had ;
- 4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free ;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in thee ;
- 5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin ;
And they who fain would serve thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.
- 6 O Saviour Christ, thou too art Man ;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried ;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide ;
- 7 Thy touch has still its ancient power,
No word from thee can fruitless fall ;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

- 1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Thy precious time mis-spent redeem,
Each present day thy last esteem ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great Day thyself prepare.
- 3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear ;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the Angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to their eternal King.

PART II

- 5 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept
And hast refreshed me while I slept ;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.
- 6 Lord, I my vows to thee renew ;
Scatter my sins as morning dew ;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 7 Direct, control, suggest, this day
All I design, or do, or say ;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

DOXOLOGY (may be sung at the end of either part)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

- 1 Before the day draws near its ending,
And evening steals o'er earth and sky,
Once more to thee our hymns ascending
Shall speak thy praises, Lord most high.
Thy name is blest by countless numbers
In vaster worlds, unseen, unknown,
Whose duteous service never slumbers,
In perfect love, and faultless tone.
- 2 Yet thou wilt not despise the weakest
Who here in spirit bend the knee;
Thy Christ hath said, 'Thou, Father, seekest
For such as these to worship thee.'
And through the swell of chanting voices,
The blended notes of age and youth,
Thine ear discerns, thy love rejoices,
When hearts rise up to thee in truth.
- 3 O Light all clear, O Truth most holy,
O boundless Mercy pardoning all,
Before thy feet, abashed and lowly,
With one last prayer thy children fall :—
'When we no more on earth adore thee,
And others worship here in turn,
O may we sing that song before thee,
Which none but thy redeemed can learn.'

- 1 Blest are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God ;
The secret of the Lord is theirs,
Their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2 The Lord, who left the heavens
Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
Their Pattern and their King ;
- 3 Still to the lowly soul
He doth himself impart,
And for his dwelling and his throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.
- 4 Lord, we thy presence seek ;
May ours this blessing be ;
Give us a pure and lowly heart
A temple meet for thee.

1 Blow, winds of God, awake and blow
The mists of earth away :
Shine out, O Light divine, and show
How wide and far we stray.

2 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name and sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine.

3 Our thoughts lie open to thy sight,
And naked to thy glance ;
Our secret sins are in the light
Of thy pure countenance.

4 To thee our full humanity,
Its joys and pains, belong ;
The wrong of man to man on thee
Inflicts a deeper wrong.

5 Apart from thee all gain is loss,
All labour vainly done ;
The solemn shadow of the Cross
Is better than the sun.

21. Bread of the world

And be thy feast to us the token
That by thy grace our souls are fed.

Fill me with life anew,

Until with thee I will one will,
To do and to endure.
- 3 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Till I am wholly thine,
Until this earthly part of me
Glows with thy fire divine.
- 4 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
So shall I never die,
But live with thee the perfect life
Of thine eternity.

1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
 Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
 Star of the east, the horizon adorning,
 Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
 Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall :
 Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
 Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
 Odours of Edom and offerings divine ?
 Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
 Myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine ?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
 Vainly with gifts would his favour secure ;
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
 Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
 Star of the east, the horizon adorning,
 Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

- 1 Christ the Lord is risen again !
Christ hath broken every chain !
Hark, the angels shout for joy,
Singing evermore on high,
Alleluia !
- 2 He who gave for us his life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day !
We too sing for joy, and say
Alleluia !
- 3 He who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the Cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us, and hears our cry.
Alleluia !
- 4 He whose path no records tell,
Who descended into hell ;
Who the strong man armed hath bound,
Now in highest heaven is crowned.
Alleluia !
- 5 Now he bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven.
Alleluia !
- 6 Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day thy people feed ;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for ay,
Alleluia !

 Christ, the true, the only Light,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night ;
 Dayspring from on high, be near ;
 Daystar, in my heart appear.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
 Unaccompanied by thee ;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see ;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

3 Visit then this soul of mine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief ;
 Fill me, Radiancy Divine,
 Scatter all my unbelief ;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

1 'Christian, seek not yet repose,'
Hear thy guardian angel say;
'Thou art in the midst of foes;
Watch and pray!'

2 Principalities and powers,
Mustering their unseen array,
Wait for thy unguarded hours;
Watch and pray!

3 Gird thy heavenly armour on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Ambushed lies the evil one;
Watch and pray!

4 Hear the victors who o'ercame;
Still they mark each warrior's way;
All with one sweet voice exclaim:
'Watch and pray!'

5 Hear, above all, hear thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey;
Hide within thy heart his word:
'Watch and pray!'

6 Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day;
Pray, that help may be sent down:
Watch and pray!

1 Courage, brother! do not stumble,
Though thy path be dark as night;
There's a star to guide the humble:
Trust in God, and do the right.

2 Let the road be long and dreary,
And its end far out of sight;
Foot it bravely—strong or weary:
Trust in God, and do the right.

3 Perish policy and cunning,
Perish all that fears the light;
Whether losing, whether winning,
Trust in God, and do the right.

4 Some will hate thee, some will love thee,
Some will flatter, some will slight;
Cease from man, and look above thee:
Trust in God, and do the right.

5 Simple rule and safest guiding,
Inward peace and inward light,
Star upon our path abiding,
Trust in God, and do the right.

6 Courage, brother! do not stumble,
Though thy path be dark as night;
There's a star to guide the humble:
Trust in God, and do the right.

- 1 Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
 Forgive our foolish ways !
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
 In purer lives thy service find,
 In deeper reverence praise.
- 2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
 Beside the Syrian sea,
 The gracious calling of the Lord,
 Let us, like them, without a word
 Rise up and follow thee.
- 3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee !
 O calm of hills above,
 Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
 The silence of eternity,
 Interpreted by love !
- 4 Drop thy still dews of quietness,
 Till all our strivings cease ;
 Take from our souls the strain and stress,
 And let our ordered lives confess
 The beauty of thy peace.
- 5 Breathe through the heats of our desire
 Thy coolness and thy balm ;
 Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire ;
 Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
 O still small voice of calm !

1 Eternal Father, strong to save,
 Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
 Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
 Its own appointed limits keep ;
 O hear us when we cry to thee
 For those in peril on the sea.

2 O Christ, whose voice the waters heard
 And hush'd their raging at thy word,
 Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
 And calm amid the storm didst sleep ;
 O hear us when we cry to thee
 For those in peril on the sea.

3 O Holy Spirit, who didst brood
 Upon the waters dark and rude,
 And bid their angry tumult cease,
 And give, for wild confusion, peace ;
 O hear us when we cry to thee
 For those in peril on the sea.

4 O Trinity of love and power,
 Our brethren shield in danger's hour ;
 From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
 Protect them wheresoe'er they go ;
 Thus evermore shall rise to thee
 Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

2 We are of thee, the children of thy love,
 The brothers of thy well-belovèd Son;
 Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove
 Into our hearts, that we may be as one:
 As one with thee, to whom we ever tend;
 As one with him, our Brother and our Friend.

3 We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
 One in our love of all things sweet and fair,
 One with the joy that breaketh into song,
 One with the grief that trembleth into prayer,
 One in the power that makes the children free
 To follow truth, and thus to follow thee.

4 O clothe us with thy heavenly armour, Lord,
 Thy trusty shield, thy sword of love divine;
 Our inspiration be thy constant word;
 We ask no victories that are not thine:
 Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be;
 Enough to know that we are serving thee.

- 1 Father, let me dedicate
All my times to thee,
In whatever worldly state
Thou wilt have me be :
Not from sorrow, pain, or care
Freedom dare I claim ;
This alone shall be my prayer,
Glorify thy name.
- 2 Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live ?
Can a Father's love refuse
All the best to give ?
More thou givest every day
Than the best can claim,
Nor withholdest aught that may
Glorify thy name.
- 3 If thou callest to the cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home ;
Let me think how thy dear Son
To his glory came,
And in deepest love pray on,
'Glorify thy name.'
- 4 If in mercy thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine ;
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine ;
Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify thy name.

1 Father of heaven, whose love profound
A ransom for our souls hath found,
Before thy throne we sinners bend ;
To us thy pardoning love extend.

2 Almighty Son, incarnate Word,
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
Before thy throne we sinners bend ;
To us thy saving grace extend.

3 Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,
Before thy throne we sinners bend ;
To us thy quickening power extend.

4 Thrice-Holy Father, Spirit, Son—
Mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
Before thy throne we sinners bend ;
Grace, pardon, life to us extend.

- 1 Father of peace and God of love,
We own thy power to save,
That power by which our Shepherd rose,
Victorious o'er the grave.
- 2 O may thy Spirit seal our souls,
And mould them to thy will,
That our weak hearts no more may stray,
But keep thy precepts still.
- 3 That to perfection's sacred height
We nearer still may rise,
And all we think and all we do
Be pleasing in thine eyes.

1 Fill thou my life, O Lord my God,
In ev'ry part with praise,
That my whole being may proclaim
Thy being and thy ways.

2 Not for the lip of praise alone,
Nor even the praising heart
I ask, but for a life made up
Of praise in every part.

3 Praise in the common things of life,
Its goings out and in ;
Praise in each duty and each deed,
However small and mean.

4 Fill every part of me with praise :
Let all my being speak
Of thee, and of thy love, O Lord,
Poor though I be, and weak.

5 So shalt thou, gracious Lord, from me,
Receive the glory due ;
And so shall I begin on earth
The song for ever new.

6 So shall no part of day or night
From sacredness be free :
But all my life, in every step,
Be fellowship with thee.

All pity, care, and love,
All calm and courage, faith and hope—
O, pour them from above!
- 2 And part them, Lord, to each and all,
As each and all shall need,
To rise, like incense, each to thee,
In noble thought and deed.
- 3 And hasten, Lord, that perfect day
When pain and death shall cease,
And thy just rule shall fill the earth
With health, and light, and peace;
- 4 When ever blue the sky shall gleam,
And ever green the sod,
And man's rude work deface no more
The Paradise of God.

- 1 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Sion, city of our God !
He, whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for his own abode :
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose ?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
- 2 See, the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove :
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage ?
Grace, which like the Lord the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.
- 3 Saviour, if of Sion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show ;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Sion's children know.

1 Glory to thee, my God, this night
For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

4 O may my soul on thee repose, [close,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids
Sleep that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

5 If in the night I sleepless lie, [ply ;
My soul with heavenly thoughts sup-
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform ;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

Deep in fathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take,
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace ;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour ;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain ;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

1 God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

2 Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign;
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.

3 God bless our native land,
May heaven's protecting hand
Still guard our shore;
May peace her power extend,
Foe be transformed to friend,
And Britain's power depend
On war no more.

4 May just and righteous laws
Uphold the public cause
And bless our isle.
Home of the brave and free,
Fair land of liberty,
We pray that still on thee
Kind heaven may smile!

5 And not this land alone—
But be thy mercies known
From shore to shore.
Lord, make the nations see
That men should brothers be,
And form one family
The wide world o'er.

- 1 God the omnipotent, King who ordainest,
Great winds thy clarions, the lightnings thy sword;
Show forth thy pity on high where thou reignest;
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.
- 2 God the all-merciful, earth hath forsaken
Meekness and mercy, and slighted thy word;
Bid not thy wrath in its terrors awaken:
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.
- 3 God the all-righteous One, man hath defied thee:
Yet to eternity standeth thy word;
Falsehood and wrong shall not tarry beside thee:
Give to us peace in our time, O Lord.
- 4 God the all-wise, by the fire of thy chastening,
Earth shall to freedom and truth be restored;
Through the thick darkness thy kingdom is hastening:
Thou wilt give peace in thy time, O Lord.

1 Good unto all men is the Lord :
 O'er all his works his mercy is.
 Thy works all praise to thee afford :
 Thy saints, O Lord, thy name shall bless.

2 The glory of thy kingdom show
 Shall they, and of thy power tell :
 That so men's sons his deeds may know,
 His kingdom's grace that doth excel.

3 Thy kingdom hath none end at all,
 It doth through ages all remain.
 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
 The cast-down raiseth up again.

4 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
 And on thee wait that here do live,
 And thou, in season due, dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.

5 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide,
 And every thing dost satisfy
 That lives, and doth on earth abide,
 Of thy great liberality.

1 Hark! the herald Angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King;
 Peace on earth and mercy mild,
 God and sinners reconciled:
 Joyful all ye nations rise,
 Join the triumph of the skies;
 With th' angelic host proclaim,
 'Christ is born in Bethlehem'.

*Hark! the herald Angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.*

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
 Christ, the everlasting Lord,
 Late in time behold him come,
 Offspring of a Virgin's womb!
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
 Hail the incarnate Deity!
 Pleased as man with man to dwell,
 Jesus, our Emmanuel.

*Hark! the herald Angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.*

3 Hail the heaven-born Prince of peace!
 Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Risen with healing in his wings;
 Mild he lays his glory by,
 Born that man no more may die,
 Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth.

*Hark! the herald Angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.*

- 1 Hark! the song of jubilee,
 Loud as mighty thunders roar,
 Or the fullness of the sea
 When it breaks upon the shore.
 Hallelujah! for the Lord
 God omnipotent shall reign.
 Hallelujah! let the word
 Echo round the earth and main.
- 2 'Hallelujah'! hark! the sound,
 From the centre to the skies,
 Wakes above, beneath, around,
 All creation's harmonies;
 See Jehovah's banner furled,
 Sheathed his sword: he speaks—'tis done;
 And the kingdoms of the world
 Are the kingdoms of his Son.
- 3 He shall reign from pole to pole
 With illimitable sway;
 He shall reign when, like a scroll,
 Yonder heavens have passed away.
 Then the end—beneath his rod
 Man's last enemy shall fall;
 Hallelujah! Christ in God,
 God in Christ, is all in all.

River and mountain-spring,
Hark to the advent voice,
Valley and lowland, sing :
Though absent long, your Lord is nigh,

Deep in your coral caves
Pent be each warring breeze,
Lulled be your restless waves :
He comes to reign with boundless sway,
And make your wastes his great highway.

Soon shall your sons be free,
The sleep of ages break,
And rise to liberty :
On your far hills, long cold and grey,
Has dawned the everlasting day.

Ye that have waited long,
Unvisited, unblest,
Break forth to swelling song ;
High raise the note, that Jesus died,
Yet lives and reigns—the Crucified !

Songs be in every mouth ;
Lo, from the North we come,
From East, and West, and South :
City of God, the bond are free ;
We come to live and reign with thee.

May also be sung to LITTLE CORNARD (see Supplement, p. 428).

1 Holy, holy, holy ! Lord God Almighty !

Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee :

Holy, holy, holy ! Merciful and mighty !

God in three Persons, blessed Trinity !

2 Holy, holy, holy ! all the Saints adore thee,

Casting down their golden crowns around the crystal sea ;

Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before thee,

Which wert and art and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, holy, holy ! though the darkness hide thee,

Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see ;

Only thou art holy, there is none beside thee,

Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, holy, holy ! Lord God Almighty !

All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea ;

Holy, holy, holy ! Merciful and mighty !

God in three Persons, blessed Trinity !

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'Come unto me and rest ;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon my breast.'
 I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad ;
 I found in him a resting place,
 And he hath made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'Behold, I freely give
 The living water ; thirsty one
 Stoop down, and drink, and live.'
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream ;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul
 And now I live in him. [revived,

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'I am this dark world's Light ;
 Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright.'
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my Star, my Sun ;
 And in that Light of life I'll walk,
 Till travelling days are done.

He slumber that thee keeps.
Behold, he that keeps Israel,
He slumbers not, nor sleeps.

On thy right hand doth stay :
The moon by night thee shall not smite,

Preserve thee from all ill ;
Henceforth thy going out and in
God keep for ever will.

1 I waited for the Lord my God,
 And patiently did bear ;
 At length to me he did incline,
 My voice and cry to hear.

2 He took me from a fearful pit,
 And from the miry clay,
 And on a rock he set my feet,
 Establishing my way.

 And on the Lord rely.

- 1 Immortal love, for ever full,
For ever flowing free,
For ever shared, for ever whole,
A never-ebbing sea.
- 2 Our outward lips confess the name
All other names above ;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.
- 3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps,
To bring the Lord Christ down ;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown.
- 4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he ;
And faith hath still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
- 5 The healing of his seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain ;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.
- 6 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame ;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.
- 7 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine.

1 It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From Angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold :
'Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King !'
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the Angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled ;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world ;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing ;
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed Angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long ;
Beneath the Angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong ;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring :
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the Angels sing !

4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing ;
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the Angels sing !

5 For lo ! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When, with the ever-circling years,
Comes round the age of gold ;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendours fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the Angels sing.

May also be sung to FOREST GREEN, No. 168.

1 It fell upon a summer day,
When Jesus walked in Galilee,
The mothers of the village brought
Their children to his knee.

2 He took them in his arms, and laid
His hands on each remembered head;
'Suffer these little ones to come
To Me,' he gently said.

3 'Forbid them not; unless ye bear
The childlike heart your hearts within,
Unto my Kingdom ye may come,
But may not enter in.'

4 Master, I fain would enter there;
O let me follow thee, and share
Thy meek and lowly heart, and be Freed from all worldly care.

* Omit pause in vv. 1, 2, 4, and 7.

- 5 Of innocence, and love, and trust,
Of quiet work, and simple word,
Of joy, and thoughtlessness of self,
Build up my life, good Lord.
- 6 All happy thoughts, and gentle ways,
And loving-kindness daily given,
And freedom through obedience gained,
Make in my heart thine Heaven.
- 7 Oh, happy thus to live and move !
And sweet this world, where I shall find
God's beauty everywhere, his love,
His good in all mankind.
- 8 Then, Father, grant this childlike heart,
That I may come to Christ, and feel
His hands on me in blessing laid,
Love giving, strong to heal.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song ;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

3 Blessings abound where'er he reigns ;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains ;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

4 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honours to our king :
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the long Amen.

- 1 Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts,
 Thou fount of life, thou light of men,
 From the best bliss that earth imparts
 We turn unfilled to thee again.
- 2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood ;
 Thou savest those that on thee call ;
 To them that seek thee thou art good,
 To them that find thee, all in all.
- 3 We taste thee, O thou living Bread,
 And long to feast upon thee still ;
 We drink of thee, the Fountain-head,
 And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
 Where'er our changeful lot is cast,—
 Glad when thy gracious smile we see,
 Blest when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 5 O Jesus, ever with us stay ;
 Make all our moments calm and bright ;
 Chase the dark night of sin away ;
 Shed o'er the world thy holy light.

- 1 Judge eternal, throned in splendour,
Lord of lords and King of kings,
With thy living fire of judgement
Purge this realm of bitter things :
Solace all its wide dominion
With the healing of thy wings.
- 2 Still the weary folk are pining
For the hour that brings release :
And the city's crowded clangour
Cries aloud for sin to cease ;
And the homesteads and the woodlands
Plead in silence for their peace.
- 3 Crown, O God, thine own endeavour :
Cleave our darkness with thy sword :
Feed the faint and hungry heathen
With the richness of thy Word :
Cleanse the body of this empire
Through the glory of the Lord.

Trees and fields in bloom appear ;
Hark ! the birds with artless lays Warble their Creator's praise.
- 2 Where in winter all was snow,
Now the flowers in clusters grow ;
And the corn, in green array,
Promises a harvest-day.
- 3 Lord, afford a spring to me,
Let me feel like what I see ;
Speak, and by thy gracious voice,
Make my drooping soul rejoice.
- 4 On thy garden deign to smile,
Raise the plants, enrich the soil ;
Soon thy presence will restore
Life to what seemed dead before.

2 Father of heaven who lovest all,
O help thy children when they call,
That they may build from age to age
An undefiled heritage.

3 Teach us to bear the yoke in youth,
With steadfastness and careful truth :
That, in our time thy grace may give
The truth whereby the nations live.

4 Teach us to rule ourselves always,
Controlled and cleanly night and day ;
That we may bring, if need arise,
No maimed or worthless sacrifice.

5 Teach us to look in all our ends
On thee for judge, and not our friends ;
That we, with thee, may walk uncowed
By fear or favour of the crowd.

6 Teach us the strength that cannot seek,
By deed or thought, to hurt the weak ;
That under thee we may possess
Man's strength to comfort man's distress.

7 Teach us delight in simple things,
And mirth that has no bitter springs ;
Forgiveness free to evil done,
And love to all men 'neath the sun.

[8 *Land of our birth, our faith, our pride,
For whose dear sake our fathers died ;
O Motherland we pledge to thee,
Head, heart, and hand through years to be !*]

 Lead thou me on ;
 The night is dark, and I am far from home ;
 Lead thou me on.
 Keep thou my feet ; I do not ask to see
 The distant scene ; one step enough for me.
- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
 Shouldst lead me on ;
 I loved to choose and see my path ; but now
 Lead thou me on.
 I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
 Pride ruled my will : remember not past years.
- 3 So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still
 Will lead me on
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
 The night is gone ;
 And with the morn those angel faces smile
 Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

1 Let saints on earth in concert sing
With those whose work is done ;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.

2 One family we dwell in him,
One Church, above, beneath ;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

3 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow ;
Part of his host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

4 E'en now to their eternal home
There pass some spirits blest ;
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.

5 Jesu, be thou our constant Guide ;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heaven.

From bondage and from wrath.

Strong in your Captain's strength,
Go to the conquest of all lands;
All must be his at length.

Quit you like men, be strong;

1 'Lift up your hearts !' We lift them, Lord, to thee ;
 Here at thy feet none other may we see.
 'Lift up your hearts !' Even so, with one accord,
 We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord.

2 Lift every gift that thou thyself hast given ;
 Low lies the best till lifted up to heaven ;
 Low lie the bounding heart, the teeming brain,
 Till, sent from God, they mount to God again.

3 Then, as the trumpet-call, in after years,
 'Lift up your hearts !' rings pealing in our ears,
 Still shall those hearts respond with full accord,
 'We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord !'

1 Lo ! golden light rekindles day :
Let paling darkness steal away,
Which all too long o'erwhelmed our gaze
And led our steps by winding ways.

2 We pray thee, rising Light serene,
E'en as thyself our hearts make clean ;
Let no deceit our lips defile,
Nor let our souls be vexed by guile.

3 For thou dost from above survey
The converse of each fleeting day ;
Do thou direct from morning light
Our every deed, until the night.

4 All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete.

- 1 Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee,
 And plead to be forgiven,
 So let thy life our pattern be,
 And form our souls for heaven.
- 2 Help us through good report and ill
 Our daily cross to bear,
 Like thee to do our Father's will,
 Our brethren's griefs to share.
- 3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
 Our earthliness refine,
 And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
 As free and true as thine.
- 4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly,
 And grief's dark day come on,
 We in our turn would meekly cry
 'Father, thy will be done'.
- 5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
 Forgiving and forgiven,
 O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
 And follow thee to heaven.

 Fill our hearts with joy and peace,
 Let us each, thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace ;
 O refresh us,
 Travelling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give and adoration
 For thy gospel's joyful sound ;
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound ;
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.

3 So whene'er the signal 's given
 Us from earth to call away,
 Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
 Glad the summons to obey,
 May we ever
 Reign with Christ in endless day.

- 1 Lord Jesus, when we stand afar,
And gaze upon thy holy cross,
In love of thee and scorn of self,
O may we count the world as loss.
- 2 When we behold thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that thou hast trod,
Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.
- 3 O Holy Lord, uplifted high,
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below.
- 4 Give us an ever-living faith
To gaze beyond the things we see ;
And in the mystery of thy death
Draw us and all men unto thee.

Thy glory flames from sun and star;

Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch, thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

And kindling hearts that burn for thee.
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

But thy training stern hath schooled me;
Now, Lord,

Mortal vision catcheth slowly
Glimpses of the pure and holy;
Now, Lord,
Open thou mine eyes, O Lord.

Where no praiseful trumpet bloweth,
Where he may not reap who soweth,
There, Lord,
Let my heart serve thee, O Lord.

Died to make poor sinners holy,
Stumbling oft, and creeping slowly,

Guide me by thy truth, O Lord.

Of every clime and coast,

- 1 Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven to earth come down,
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesu, thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art ;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.
- 2 Come, Almighty to deliver ;
Let us all thy life receive ;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

- Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.
- 3 Finish then thy new creation,
Pure and spotless may we be ;
Let us see thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee ;
Changed from glory into glory,
Thill in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

1 Make sure of truth,
And truth will make thee sure ;
It will not shift nor fade nor die,
But like the heav'ns endure.

2 Man and his earth
Are varying day by day ;
Truth cannot change, nor ever grow
Feeble and old and gray.

3 God's thoughts, not man's,
Be these thy heritage ;
They, like himself, are ever young,
Untouched by time or age.

4 With God alone
Is truth, and joy, and light ;
Walk thou with him in peace and love,
Hold fast the good and right.

1 My soul, there is a country
Far beyond the stars,
Where stands a wingèd sentry
All skilful in the wars.

2 There, above noise and danger,
Sweet Peace sits crowned with
And One born in a manger [smiles,
Commands the beauteous files.

3 If thou canst get but thither,
There grows the flower of Peace,
The Rose that cannot wither,
Thy fortress and thy ease.

4 Leave then thy foolish ranges ;
For none can thee secure,
But One who never changes,
Thy God, thy life, thy cure.

The light and darkness are of his disposing,
Beneath his shadow here to rest we yield us,

1 Now thank we all our God
 With heart and hands and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In whom his world rejoices;
 Who from our mother's arms
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.

2 O may this bounteous God
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever-joyful hearts
 And blessèd peace to cheer us;
 And keep us in his grace,
 And guide us when perplexed,
 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God
 The Father now be given,
 The Son, and him who reigns
 With them in highest heaven;
 The one eternal God,
 Whom earth and heaven adore,
 For thus it was, is now,
 And shall be evermore.

1 Now that the sun is beaming bright,
Implore we, bending low,
That he, the Uncreated Light,
May guide us as we go.

2 No sinful word, nor deed of wrong,
Nor thoughts that idly rove,
But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.

3 And grant that to thine honour, Lord,
Our daily toil may tend ;
That we begin it at thy word,
And in thy favour end.

[Copyright 1904 by the Proprietors of 'Hymns Ancient and Modern'.]

1 O brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother !
 Where pity dwells, the peace of God is there ;
 To worship rightly is to love each other,
 Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.

2 Follow with reverent steps the great example
 Of him whose holy work was doing good ;
 So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
 Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.

3 Then shall all shackles fall ; the stormy clangour
 Of war's wild music o'er the earth shall cease ;
 Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger,
 And in its ashes plant the tree of peace.

- 1 O Christ, our true and only Light,
Illumine those who sit in night ;
Let those afar now hear thy voice,
And in thy fold with us rejoice.
- 2 And all who else have strayed from thee
O gently seek ! Thy healing be
To every wounded conscience given,
And let them also share thy heaven.
- 3 O make the deaf to hear thy word,
And teach the dumb to speak, dear Lord,
Who dare not yet the faith avow,
Though secretly they hold it now.
- 4 Shine on the darkened and the cold,
Recall the wanderer from thy fold,
Those now unite who walk apart,
Confirm the weak and doubting heart.
- 5 So they with us may evermore
Such grace with wondering thanks adore,
And endless praise to thee be given
By all thy Church in earth and heaven.

- 1 O day of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light :
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright :
On thee the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing holy, holy, holy,
To the great God triune.
- 2 On thee at the creation
The light first had its birth ;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth ;
On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven ;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

- 3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand ;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land :
A day of sweet refection,
A day thou art of love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.
- 4 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son ;
The Church her voice upraises
To thee, blest Three in One.

Of God the Father's face,
Th' eternal splendour wearing ;
Celestial, holy, blest,
Our Saviour Jesus Christ,
Joyful in thine appearing.

We see the evening light,
Our wonted hymn outpouring ;
Father of might unknown,
Thee, his incarnate Son,
And Holy Spirit adoring.

All praise of holy songs,
O Son of God, Lifegiver ;
Thee, therefore, O Most High,
The world doth glorify,
And shall exalt for ever.

- 1 O God of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed,
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led :
- 2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before thy throne of grace ;

Of their succeeding race.

Give us each day our daily bread,

Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

1 O God of earth and altar,
Bow down and hear our cry,
Our earthly rulers falter,
Our people drift and die :
The walls of gold entomb us,
The swords of scorn divide,
Take not thy thunder from us,
But take away our pride.

2 From all that terror teaches,
From lies of tongue and pen,
From all the easy speeches
That comfort cruel men,
From sale and profanation
Of honour and the sword,
From sleep and from damnation,
Deliver us, good Lord !

3 Tie in a living tether
The prince and priest and thrall,
Bind all our lives together,
Smite us and save us all ;
In ire and exultation
Aflame with faith, and free,
Lift up a living nation,
A single sword to thee.

- 1 O God of truth, whose living word
Upholds whate'er hath breath,
Look down on thy creation, Lord,
Enslaved by sin and death.
- 2 Set up thy standard, Lord, that we
Who claim a heavenly birth
May march with thee to smite the lies
That vex thy groaning earth.
- 3 Ah ! would we join that blest array,
And follow in the might
Of him, the Faithful and the True,
In raiment clean and white !
- 4 Then, God of truth, for whom we long—
Thou who wilt hear our prayer—
Do thine own battle in our hearts,
And slay the falsehood there.
- 5 Yea, come ! then, tried as in the fire,
From every lie set free,
Thy perfect truth shall dwell in us,
And we shall live in thee.

1 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;

2 Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure:
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

6 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home.

- 1 O Jesus, King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renown'd,
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found.
- 2 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love divine.
- 3 O Jesus, Light of all below,
Thou Fount of life and fire,
Surpassing all the joys we know,
And all we can desire ;
- 4 Thee may our tongues for ever bless,
Thee may we love alone,
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

- 1 O Lord of life, thy quickening voice
Awakes my morning song !
In gladsome words I would rejoice
That I to thee belong.
- 2 I see thy light, I feel thy wind ;
The world, it is thy word ;
Whatever wakes my heart and mind,
Thy presence is, my Lord.
- 3 Therefore I choose my highest part,
And turn my face to thee ;
Therefore I stir my inmost heart
To worship fervently.
- 4 Lord, let me live and will this day—
Keep rising from the dead ;
Lord, make my spirit good and gay—
Give me my daily bread.
- 5 Within my heart, speak, Lord, speak on,
My heart alive to keep,
Till comes the night, and, labour done,
In thee I fall asleep.

1 O Lord of life, where'er they be,
Safe in thine own eternity,
Our dead are living unto thee.

Hallelujah !

2 All souls are thine, and, here or there,
They rest within thy sheltering care ;
One Providence alike they share.

Hallelujah !

3 Thy word is true, thy ways are just ;
Above the requiem, 'Dust to dust',
Shall rise our psalm of grateful trust,
Hallelujah !

4 O happy they in God who rest,
No more by fear and doubt oppressed !
Living or dying they are blest.

Hallelujah !

And wide o'er all the peopled world
Extend its blessed reign.

2 Thou Prince of Life, arise,
Nor let thy glory cease ;
Far spread the conquests of thy grace,
And bless the earth with peace !

3 Thou Holy Ghost, arise,
Expand thy quickening wing,
And o'er a dark and ruined world
Let light and order spring.

To God the Saviour sing ! [heaven,
From shore to shore, from earth to

- 1 O love of God, how strong and true,
Eternal and yet ever new,
Uncomprehended and unbought,
Beyond all knowledge and all thought !
- 2 O heavenly love, how precious still,
In days of weariness and ill,
In nights of pain and helplessness,
To heal, to comfort, and to bless !
- 3 O wide-embracing, wondrous love !
We read thee in the sky above ;
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.
- 4 We read thee best in him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame,
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.
- 5 We read thy power to bless and save
Even in the darkness of the grave ;
Still more in resurrection light
We read the fullness of thy might.
- 6 O love of God, our shield and stay
Through all the perils of our way ;
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
For ever safe, for ever blest.

- 1 O Love, who formedst me to wear
The image of thy Godhead here ;
Who soughtest me with tender care
Through all my wanderings wild and drear :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.
- 2 O Love, who ere life's earliest dawn,
On me thy choice hast gently laid ;
O Love, who here as Man was born,
And wholly like to us was made :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.
- 3 O Love, who once in time wast slain,
Pierced through and through with bitter woe ;
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain
That we eternal joy might know :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.
- 4 O Love, of whom is truth and light,
The Word and Spirit, life and power,
Whose heart was bared to them that smite,
To shield us in our trial hour :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.
- 5 O Love, who once shalt bid me rise
From out this dying life of ours ;
O Love, who once o'er yonder skies
Shalt set me in the fadeless bowers :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.

- 1 O praise ye the Lord !
 Praise him in the height ;
 Rejoice in his word,
 Ye angels of light ;
 Ye heavens, adore him
 By whom ye were made,
 And worship before him,
 In brightness arrayed.
- 2 O praise ye the Lord !
 Praise him upon earth,
 In tuneful accord,
 Ye sons of new birth ;
 Praise him who hath brought you
 His grace from above,
 Praise him who hath taught you
 To sing of his love.
- 3 O praise ye the Lord,
 All things that give sound :
 Each jubilant ÷chord,
 Re-echo around ;
 Loud organs, his glory
 Forth tell in deep tone,
 And sweet harp, the story
 Of what he hath done.
- 4 O praise ye the Lord !
 Thanksgiving and song
 To him be outpoured
 All ages along ;
 For love in creation,
 For heaven restored,
 For grace of salvation,
 O praise ye the Lord !

- 1 O quanta, qualia sunt illa sabbata
quae semper celebrat superna curia !
quae fessis requies, quae merces fortibus
cum erit omnia Deus in omnibus !
- 2 vere Ierusalem est illa civitas,

ubi non praevenit rem desiderium,
nec desiderio minus est praemium.
- 3 quis rex, quae curia, quale palatium,
quae pax, quae requies, quod illud gaudium,
huius participes exponant gloriam,
si, quantum sentiunt, possint exprimere.
- 4 illic molestiis finitis omnibus
securi cantica Sion cantabimus, et iuges gratias de donis gratiae
beata referet plebs tibi, Domine.
- 5 illic ex sabbato succedet sabbatum,
perpes laetitia sabbatizantium,
nec ineffabiles cessabunt iubili,
quos decantabimus et nos et angeli.
- 6 nostrum est interim mentem erigere
et totis patriam votis appetere, et ad Ierusalem a Babylonia
post longa regredi tandem exilia.
- 7 perenni Domino perpes sit gloria,
ex quo sunt, per quem sunt, in quo sunt omnia ;
ex quo sunt, Pater est ; per quem sunt, Filius ;
in quo sunt, Patris et Filii Spiritus.

- 1 O sacred head, sore wounded,
 With grief and shame laid down ;
 How scornfully surrounded
 With thorns thy only crown.
 How pale art thou with anguish,
 With sore abuse and scorn,
 How does that visage languish
 Which once was bright as morn !
- 2 What language shall I borrow
 To praise thee, heavenly Friend,
 For this thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end ?
 O make me thine for ever,
 And, should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never
 Outlive my love to thee.
- 3 In this thy bitter Passion,
 Good Shepherd, think of me,
 With thy most sweet compassion,
 Unworthy though I be ;
 Beneath thy Cross abiding
 For ever would I rest !
 In thy dear love confiding,
 And with thy presence blest.

We worship thee, we bless thee,
To thee alone we sing ;
We praise thee and confess thee

 Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise
 My harp I will employ.
- 2 Why art thou then cast down, my soul ?
 What should discourage thee ?
 And why with vexing thoughts are thou
 Disquieted in me ?
 Still trust in God ; for him to praise
 Good cause I yet shall have :
 He of my countenance is the health,

- 1 O Son of God, our Captain of salvation,
Thyself by suffering schooled to human grief,
We bless thee for thy sons of consolation,
Who follow in the steps of thee, their Chief;
- 2 Those whose bright faith makes feeble hearts grow stronger,
And sends fresh warriors to the great campaign,
Bids the lone convert feel estranged no longer,
And wins the sundered to be one again;
- 3 And all true helpers, patient, kind, and skilful,
Who shed thy light across our darkened earth,
Counsel the doubting, and restrain the wilful,
Soothe the sick bed, and share the children's mirth.
- 4 O Son of God, our Captain of salvation,
Thyself by suffering schooled to human grief,
We bless thee for thy sons of consolation,
Who follow in the steps of thee, their Chief.

- 1 O Spirit of the Living God,
In all the fullness of thy grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend upon our fallen race.
- 2 O Spirit of the Lord, prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.
- 3 Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the Cross record;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call him Lord.

King of the earth and air and skies,

2 For work and rest, for home and friends, [sends

That we may serve the noblest ends,
We thank thee, Lord.

3 For idle word and trifling thought,
For selfish pleasure we have sought,
When all for thee we should have wrought,
Forgive us, Lord.

4 From anger, pride, and selfish care,
From want of faith in work or prayer,
From sin that we would rashly dare,
O save us, Lord.

5 We trust thy wisdom, love, and power ;
When all is bright, when sorrows lower,
Through all our life, in death's last hour,
Be with us, Lord.

- 1 O thou, who camest from above
The pure celestial fire to impart !
Kindle a flame of sacred love
On the mean altar of my heart.
- 2 There let it for thy glory burn
With unextinguishable blaze ;
And trembling to its source return
In humble prayer and fervent praise.
- 3 Jesus, confirm my heart's desire,
To work, and speak, and think for thee ;
Still let me guard the holy fire,
And still stir up thy gift in me ;
- 4 Ready for all thy perfect will,
My acts of faith and love repeat ;
Till death thy endless mercies seal
And make the sacrifice complete.

- 1 O valiant hearts, who to your glory came Through dust of conflict and through battle flame ;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.
- 2 Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar ;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save mankind—yourselves you scorned to save.
- 3 Splendid you passed, the great surrender made,
Into the light that never more shall fade ;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.
- 4 Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still,
Rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
While in the frailty of our human clay,
Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.
- 5 Still stands his Cross from that dread hour to this
Like some bright star above the dark abyss ;
Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes
Look down to bless our lesser Calvaries.
- 6 These were his servants, in his steps they trod,
Following through death the martyred Son of God ;
Victor he rose ; victorious too shall rise
They who have drunk his cup of sacrifice.
- 7 O risen Lord, O shepherd of our dead,
Whose Cross has bought them and whose Staff has led,
In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land
Commits her children to thy gracious hand.

- 1 O worship the King All-glorious above ;
O gratefully sing his power and his love ;
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.
- 2 O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space ;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power hath founded of old ;
Hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.
- 4 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite ?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light ;
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
- 5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail ;
Thy mercies how tender ! how firm to the end !
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.
- 6 O measureless Might, ineffable Love,
While angels delight to hymn thee above,
Thy humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

1 Once in royal David's city
 Stood a lowly cattle shed,
 Where a Mother laid her Baby
 In a manger for his bed :
 Mary was that Mother mild,
 Jesus Christ her little Child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven,
 Who is God and Lord of all,
 And his shelter was a stable,
 And his cradle was a stall ;
 With the poor, the mean, and lowly,
 Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And through all his wondrous child-
 He would honour and obey, [hood
 Love, and watch the lowly Maiden,
 In whose gentle arms he lay ;
 Christian children all must be
 Mild, obedient, good as he.

4 For he is our childhood's pattern,
 Day by day like us he grew,
 He was little, weak, and helpless,
 Tears and smiles like us he knew ;
 And he feeleth for our sadness,
 And he shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see him,
 Through his own redeeming love,
 For that Child so dear and gentle
 Is our Lord in heaven above ;
 And he leads his children on
 To the place where he is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
 With the oxen standing by,
 We shall see him ; but in heaven,
 Set at God's right hand on high ;
 When like stars his children crowned
 All in white shall wait around.

1 Our Father, hear our longing prayer,
And help this prayer to flow,
That humble thoughts, which are thy care,
May live in us and grow.

2 For lowly hearts shall understand
The peace, the calm delight
Of dwelling in thy heavenly land,
A pleasure in thy sight.

3 Give us humility, that so
Thy reign may come within,
And when thy children homeward go,
We too may enter in.

4 Hear us, our Saviour; ours thou art,
Though we are not like thee;
Give us thy Spirit in our heart,
Large, lowly, trusting, free.

- 1 Praise thou the Lord, O my soul ; let thy song upward soaring
Join with the songs of the angels in heaven adoring.
Brethren, rejoice ;
Wake the lute, lift up the voice,
Loudly his praises outpouring.
- 2 Praise thou the Lord, the all-glorious King of creation ;
He hath on eagles' wings borne thee through all tribulation.
Give him thy heart ;
He it is who doth impart
Joy to thee, life and salvation.
- 3 Praise thou the Lord, who with marvellous wisdom hath made thee,
Decked thee with health, and with loving hand guided and stayed thee.
How oft in grief
Hath not he brought thee relief,
Spreading his wings for to shade thee.
- 4 Praise thou the Lord ; look and see how thy life he sustaineth :
Think of the rivers of love that from heaven he raineth.
God from above
Stoopeth to give thee his love ;
His mighty arm who restraineth ?
- 5 Praise thou the Lord, O my soul ; all that in me is, praise him.
Bless thou his name with his people here gathered to praise him.
He is thy light ;
Keep him for aye in thy sight ;
Praise him, for evermore praise him.

- 1 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.
- 2 O loving wisdom of our God !
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.
- 3 O wisest love ! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail ;
- 4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's presence and his very Self,
And Essence all-divine.
- 5 O generous love ! that he who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo ;
- 6 And in the garden secretly,
And on the Cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.
- 7 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

1 Rank by rank again we stand,
 From the four winds gathered hither.
 Loud the hallowed walls demand
 Whence we come, and how, and whither.
 From their stillness breaking clear
 Echoes wake to warn or cheer;
 Higher truth and holier good
 Call our mustered brotherhood.

2 Ours the years' memorial store,
 Hero days and names we reckon,
 Days of brethren gone before,
 Lives that speak and deeds that beckon.
 One in name, in honour one,
 Guard we well the crown they won;
 What they dreamed be ours to do,
 Hope their hopes, and seal them true.

3 Brother, if with lure unblest,
 Tempterlike the past betray thee,
 Rise once more to war addressed;
 Fair the field, thy God to aid thee.
 Lo, once more the morn begins,
 Scatters as the cloud thy sins;
 Rise, and bid thy morrow slay
 Shades or shames of yesterday.

4 Forward then our battle go,
 Comrades sworn one troth to render;
 Life by fellow-life upgrow,
 Strong for war, for helping tender;
 Strong for war, whom Christ hath led;
 Tender, for whose weal he bled;
 Pure, for mute above us move
 Wings of the immortal Love.

NOTE.—To be sung with unbroken rhythm and without break between verses with a slight holding back in the last three lines of the hymn.

- 1 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
Hark, all the tribes hosanna cry;
Thine humble beast pursues his road
With palms and scattered garments strowed.
- 2 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
O Christ, thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquered sin.

- 3 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
The winged squadrons of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the approaching sacrifice.
- 4 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;
Bow thy meek head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, thy power, and reign.

1 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in thee ;
 Let the water and the blood,
 From thy riven side which flowed,
 Be of sin the double cure,
 Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labours of my hands
 Can fulfil thy law's demands ;
 Could my zeal no respite know,
 Could my tears for ever flow,
 All for sin could not atone,
 Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring ;
 Simply to thy cross I cling ;
 Naked, come to thee for dress ;
 Helpless, look to thee for grace ;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly ;
 Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When mine eyes are closed in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See thee on thy judgement throne,
 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in thee.

- 1 Saviour, again to thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise ;
We stand to bless thee ere our worship cease,
Then lowly kneeling wait thy word of peace.
- 2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward way ;
With thee began, with thee shall end the day :
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon thy name.
- 3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,
Turn thou for us its darkness into light ;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to thee.
- 4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow and our stay in strife ;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

- 1 Sing to the Lord a joyful song.
Lift up your hearts, your voices raise ;
To us his gracious gifts belong,
To him our songs of love and praise.
- 2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for he is good,
And praise his name, for it is fair.
- 3 For strength to those who on him wait
His truth to prove, his will to do,
Praise ye our God, for he is great,
Trust in his name, for it is true.
- 4 For joys untold, that from above
Cheer those who love his sweet employ,
Sing to our God, for he is Love,
Exalt his name, for it is Joy.

- 1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
 Heaven with Alleluias rang,
 When Jehovah's work begun,
 When he spake and it was done.
 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
 When the Prince of Peace was born ;
 Songs of praise arose when he
 Captive led captivity.
- 2 Heaven and earth must pass away ;
 Songs of praise shall crown that day :
 God will make new heavens and earth ;
 Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
 And can man alone be dumb
 Till that glorious kingdom come ?
 No, the Church delights to raise
 Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.
- 3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
 Still in songs of praise rejoice,
 Learning here, by faith and love,
 Songs of praise to sing above.
 Borne upon their latest breath,
 Songs of praise shall conquer death ;
 Then, amidst eternal joy,
 Songs of praise their powers employ.

- 1 Souls of men, why will ye scatter
Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why will ye wander
From a love so true and deep?
Was there ever kindest shepherd
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Saviour, who would have us
Come and gather round his feet?
- 2 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty. [rows
There is no place where earth's sor-
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgement given.

- 3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
- 4 Pining souls, come nearer Jesus;
And oh come, not doubting thus,
But with faith that trusts more bravely
His vast tenderness for us.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

At eve hold not thine hand ;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed,
Broadcast it o'er the land. 2 Thou know'st not which may thrive,
The late or early sown ;
Grace keeps the precious germ alive,
When and wherever strewn. | 3 And duly shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length. 4 Thou canst not toil in vain ;
Cold, heat, and moist, and dry
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky. 5 Thence, when the glorious end,
The Day of God, is come,
The Angel-reapers shall descend,
And Heaven cry, Harvest-home. |

The darkness falls at thy behest ;
To thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest. 2 We thank thee that thy Church un-

While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night. | 3 As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,

And hour by hour fresh lips are mak-

1 The duteous day now closeth,
 Each flower and tree reposeth,
 Shade creeps o'er wild and wood :
 Let us, as night is falling,
 On God our Maker calling,
 Give thanks to him, the Giver good.

2 Now all the heavenly splendour
 Breaks forth in starlight tender
 From myriad worlds unknown ;
 And man, the marvel seeing,
 Forgets his selfish being,
 For joy of beauty not his own.

3 His care he drowneth yonder,
 Lost in the abyss of wonder ;
 To heaven his soul doth steal :
 This life he disesteemeth,
 The day it is that dreameth,
 That doth from truth his vision seal.

4 Awhile his mortal blindness
 May miss God's loving-kindness,
 And grope in faithless strife :
 But when life's day is over
 Shall death's fair night discover
 The fields of everlasting life.

- 1 The God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above;
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love:
Jehovah, Great I AM,
By earth and heaven confest:
I bow and bless the Sacred Name
For ever blest.
- 2 The God of Abraham praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand;
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power;
And him my only Portion make,
My Shield and Tower.
- 3 He by himself hath sworn,
I on his oath depend,
I shall, on eagle's wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold his face,
I shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace
For evermore!

- 4 There dwells the Lord, our King,
The Lord, our Righteousness;
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace,
On Zion's sacred height
His Kingdom still maintains;
And glorious with his Saints in light
For ever reigns.
- 5 The God who reigns on high
The great Archangels sing;
And 'Holy, Holy, Holy,' cry,
'Almighty King!
Who was, and is the same,
And evermore shall be.
Jehovah! Father, Great I AM!
We worship thee.'
- 6 The whole triumphant Host
Give thanks to God on high;
'Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,'
They ever cry;
Hail, Abraham's God, and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are thine,
And endless praise!

Have seen a glorious light ;
The people dwell in day, who dwelt
In death's surrounding night. 2 To hail thy rise, thou better sun,
The gathering nations come,
Joyous, as when the reapers bear
The harvest-treasures home. | 3 To us a Child of hope is born,
To us a Son is given :
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
Him all the hosts of heaven. 4 His name shall be the Prince of peace,

The great and mighty Lord. 5 His power increasing still shall spread,

1 The spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue, ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.
Th' unwearied sun, from day to day
Does his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an Almighty Hand.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth;

While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings, as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball:
What though nor real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found;
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
For ever singing, as they shine,
'The hand that made us is Divine.'

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia !

- 1 The strife is o'er, the battle done ;
Now is the Victor's triumph won ;
O let the song of praise be sung.

Alleluia !

- 2 Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed ;
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst ;
- 3 On the third morn he rose again
Glorious in majesty to reign ;
O let us swell the joyful strain ;
- 4 He brake the age-bound chains of hell ;
The bars from heaven's high portals fell ;
Let hymns of praise his triumph tell ;
- 5 Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee :

1 There is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God, above, below,
Within us, and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love, [small
Wherewith encompassed, great and
In peace and order move.

4 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down;

But where it lights the favoured place
By richest fruits is known.

5 The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy spirit's viewless way.

6 Two worlds are ours : 'tis only sin
Forbids us to descry
The mystic heaven and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky.

7 Thou, who hast given us eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give us a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

- 1 Thou hidden love of God, whose height,
 Whose depth unfathomed, no man knows,
 I see from far thy beauteous light,
 Inly I sigh for thy repose:
 My heart is pained, nor can it be
 At rest, till it find rest in thee.
- 2 Is there a thing beneath the sun
 That strives with thee my heart to share?
 Ah, tear it thence, and reign alone,
 The Lord of every motion there:
 Then shall my heart from earth be free,
 When it hath found repose in thee.
- 3 O Love, thy sovereign aid impart,
 To save me from low-thoughted care;
 Chase this self-will through all my heart,
 Through all its latent mazes there:
 Make me thy duteous child, that I
 Ceaseless may 'Abba, Father' cry!
- 4 Each moment draw from earth away
 My heart, that lowly waits thy call;
 Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
 I am thy life, thy God, thy all:
 To feel thy power, to hear thy voice,
 To taste thy love, be all my choice.

 Hear us, we humbly pray,
 And where the Gospel day

 Healing and sight,
 Health to the sick in mind,
 Sight to the inly blind,
 Ah! now to all mankind
 Let there be light.

 Shield and save us!

3 From the thought thou canst not share,
 From the lip untuned to prayer,
 Thou that rulest here as there,
 Shield and save us!

4 By the love that stooped to earth,
 By thy gracious human birth,
 By thy childhood's tears and mirth,
 Shield and save us!

5 Till the school of life is o'er,
 Said the tasks, and shut the door,
 Jesu, now and evermore
 Shield and save us!

1 Thy kingdom come, O God,
Thy rule, O Christ, begin ;
Break with thine iron rod
The tyrannies of sin.

2 Where is thy reign of peace,
And purity, and love ?
When shall all hatred cease,
As in the realms above ?

3 When comes the promised time
That war shall be no more,—
Oppression, lust, and crime
Shall flee thy face before ?

4 We pray thee, Lord, arise,
And come in thy great might ;
Revive our longing eyes,
Which languish for thy sight.

5 Men scorn thy sacred name,
And wolves devour thy fold ;
By many deeds of shame
We learn that love grows cold.

6 O'er heathen lands afar
Thick darkness broodeth yet :
Arise, O morning Star,
Arise, and never set !

The passing ages pray;

On earth that kingdom's day. 2 But the slow watches of the night
Not less to God belong:
And for the everlasting right
The silent stars are strong. | 3 And lo! already on the hills
The flags of dawn appear:
Gird up your loins, ye prophet souls;
Proclaim the day is near: 4 The day in whose clear-shining light
All wrong shall stand revealed,
When justice shall be throned in

And every heart be healed: 5 When knowledge, hand in hand with peace,
Shall walk the earth abroad;—
The day of perfect righteousness,
The promised day of God. |

1. Who would true valour see,
 Let him come hither;
 One here will constant be,
 Come wind, come weather.
 There's no discouragement
 Shall make him once relent
 His first avowed intent
 To be a pilgrim.

(Modernized form.)

2 Who so beset him round
 With dismal stories,
 Do but themselves confound—
 His strength the more is.
 No foes shall stay his might,
 Though he with giants fight:
 He will make good his right
 To be a pilgrim.

3 Since, Lord, thou dost defend
 Us with thy Spirit,
 We know we at the end
 Shall life inherit.
 Then fancies flee away!
 I'll fear not what men say,
 I'll labour night and day
 To be a pilgrim.

(Original version.)

2 Whoso beset him round
 With dismal stories,
 Do but themselves confound;
 His strength the more is.
 No lion can him fright,
 He'll with a giant fight,
 But he will have a right
 To be a pilgrim.

3 Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
 Can daunt his spirit,
 He knows he at the end
 Shall life inherit.
 Then fancies fly away;
 He'll not fear what men say,
 He'll labour night and day
 To be a pilgrim.

1 Ye holy Angels bright,
 Who wait at God's right hand,
 Or through the realms of light
 Fly at your Lord's command,
 Assist our song,
 For else the theme
 Too high doth seem
 For mortal tongue.

2 Ye blessed souls at rest,
 Who ran this earthly race,
 And now, from sin released,
 Behold the Saviour's face,
 God's praises sound,
 As in his light
 With sweet delight
 Ye do abound.

3 Ye saints, who toil below,
 Adore your heavenly King,
 And onward as ye go
 Some joyful anthem sing;
 Take what he gives
 And praise him still,
 Through good or ill,
 Who ever lives !

4 My soul, bear thou thy part,
 Triumph in God above :
 And with a well-tuned heart
 Sing thou the songs of love !
 Let all thy days
 Till life shall end,
 Whate'er he send,
 Be filled with praise.

In such a posture found !
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honour crowned.

5 Christ shall the banquet spread
With his own royal hand,
And raise that faithful servant's head
Amid the angelic band.

1 Ye that have spent the silent night
 In sleep and quiet rest,
 And joy to see the cheerful light
 That riseth in the east ;
 Now lift your hearts, your voices raise,
 Your morning tribute bring,
 And pay a grateful song of praise
 To heaven's almighty King.

2 And as this gloomy night did last
 But for a little space ;
 As heavenly day, now night is past,
 Doth show his pleasant face ;
 So let us hope, when faith and love
 Their work on earth have done,
 God's blessed face to see above,
 Heaven's better, brighter sun.

3 God grant us grace that height to gain,
 That glorious sight to see,
 And send us, after worldly pain,
 A life from trouble free ;
 Where cheerful day shall ever shine,
 And sorrow never come ;
 Lord, be a place, a portion mine,
 In that bright blissful home.

200. Te Deum Laudamus

NOTE.—This Te Deum is in no set time ; but its time-unit is set. It is the crotchet ; it is constant and must be carefully maintained by the singers without becoming rigid. The words themselves will give right rhythms and natural phrasing.

1 Hills of the North, rejoice,
River and mountain spring,
Hark to the advent voice,
Valley and lowland, sing :
Though absent long, your Lord is nigh,
He judgement brings and victory.

2 Isles of the Southern Seas,
Deep in your coral caves
Pent be each warring breeze,
Lulled be your restless waves :
He comes to reign with boundless sway, [way.
And make your wastes his great high-

3 Lands of the East, awake,
Soon shall your sons be free,
The sleep of ages break,

And rise to liberty :
On your far hills, long cold and grey,
Has dawned the everlasting day.

4 Shores of the utmost West,
Ye that have waited long
Unvisited, unblest,
Break forth to swelling song ;
High raise the note, that Jesus died,
Yet lives and reigns—the Crucified !

5 Shout ! while ye journey home ;
Songs be in every mouth ;
Lo, from the North we come,
From East, and West, and South :
City of God, the bond are free ;
We come to live and reign with thee.

1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time :
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me ;
Lo ! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Add more lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified ;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time :
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

1 To Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
All pray in their distress,
And to those virtues of delight
Return their thankfulness.

2 For Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
Is God our Father dear ;
And Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
Is man, his child and care.

3 For Mercy has a human heart,
Pity, a human face ;
And Love, the human form divine,
And Peace, the human dress.

4 Then every man, of every clime,
That prays in his distress,
Prays to the human form divine :
Love, Mercy, Pity, Peace.

5 And all must love the human form,
In heathen, Turk, or Jew ;
Where Mercy, Love, and Pity dwell,
There God is dwelling too.
